It just grows better (and tastier) every year!

New topiaries and foods at the Epcot® International Flower & Garden Festival

When spring is in the air, magic blooms—especially at Epcot®. From March 5–May 18, over 70 Disney Character topiaries along with thousands of gorgeous blooms will return, blanketing Epcot® with the colors of springtime. And back by popular demand, 11 Outdoor Kitchens will serve up an assortment of delectable dishes.

Epcot® Food & Beverage Executive Chef Jens Dahlmann loves how well cuisine is such a perfect addition to the festival. “It’s about flowers, but it’s also about gardening, growing your own vegetables, cooking fresh from the garden and preserving. I love outdoor living, barbecuing, spring festivals and celebrating the seasons.”

Fan favorites will return, like shrimp and grits, watermelon salad with pickled onions and the smoked pig slider complete with coleslaw and homemade sauces. All three are Jens’ favorite festival picks.

There will also be several exciting new things in store, too. Get set for Kumquat Pie, a fruity treat that makes its debut this year, along with the whimsical flair of Piggylicious Bacon Cupcakes. “There will also be a new Outdoor Kitchen that features a garden-to-table concept showcasing ingredients that are easy to grow at home,” added Jens. “All the food will be outstanding, freshly cooked and completely delicious.”

This year's new and beautiful garden delights!

This year's festival will welcome back Character topiaries based on Disney•Pixar's Monsters University and much more. "Mike and Sulley will be featured, attracting kids young and old to the garden and the adjoining play area," said Eric Darden, Manager of Horticulture for the Epcot® International Flower & Garden Festival. "There will also be a Florida fresh garden featuring different crops from around the state."

To add to the fun, Kermit and Miss Piggy will make their grand debut as the festival's newest Character topiaries (see page 6). Overall, Eric told us that the Character topiaries are the biggest draw to the festival. With that in mind, they will be getting a makeover this year—so to speak. The topiaries will look even more like their counterparts you know so well from real life.

"This will make all the garden areas—especially the entrance of the Park—even more inviting," Eric said. "Goofy will be there with a butterfly net. Joining him will be Minnie—and her hair bow of ladybugs—along with Daisy holding a butterfly." Many favorites will return too, like Tinker Bell's Butterfly House, the English Tea Garden and Disney•Pixar's Cars Playground and Backyard Play Garden. You never know which of your favorite Characters you'll see growing next!

A golden afternoon with the charming Peter Noone

Enjoying a pleasant walk and a pleasant talk with the hit-making Herman's Hermits pop legend

"I can't imagine a better place to go in the spring than here, with all the flowers and all," pop music legend Peter Noone told us.

Peter, lead singer for Herman's Hermits—the chart-topping band whose hits include the #1 smashes "I'm Henry VIII, I Am" and "Mrs. Brown, You've Got a Lovely Daughter"—loves to explore Epcot® each day he headlines at the Flower Power Concert Series during the Epcot® International Flower & Garden Festival.

"I get up in the morning every day and walk around the Park six or seven times before the show," he explained in his delightful Manchester, England, accent. "I walk into the Park along with the other Guests. I'll eat at United Kingdom, France or Morocco. Then I just walk up [to America Gardens Theatre] and do the show. It's a friendly atmosphere. At Epcot®, people are more than fans, they're like friends."

Peter Noone and Herman's Hermits get new fans every day. "Our band actually sold more records last year than we've sold since 1967. We do family-friendly music. There may have been times when that wasn't considered 'cool,' but we're still here and still going!"

To see when Herman's Hermits and other stars perform, see the calendar at the back of this issue.

"M" SECRET

Peter Noone played Pinocchio in an NBC TV musical with special effects by Bil Baird, who with his wife Cora created the marionettes in The Sound of Music. You can see some of those puppets at the American Film Institute Showcase at Disney's Hollywood Studios®!

It's time to trim the branches, Each leaf and every twig, It's time for topiaries with the frog and with the pig!

According to the new biography of Jim Henson, one of the things he had in common with Walt Disney was his lifelong love of nature. Jim delighted in lying in the grass and looking at the clouds, the trees and the beauty everywhere. What if one of those trees took on the shape of his green froggy alter ego and a well-known porcine diva?

This year, for the first time, topiaries of The Muppets will be part of the fun of Epcot® International Flower & Garden Festival, March 5–May 18, 2014. To create them, artists designed the Characters especially for the topiary design by Walt Disney Parks & Resorts Horticulture. Small models, or maquettes, were sculpted for use as reference while creating the wire frame upon which the materials would be intertwined, trimmed and lovingly transformed into magical shrubberies to rival Kermit's favorite color.

But hurry—once the festival goes away, these treasures will, too!

Muppets, Muppets, everywhere!

"Don't you just hate it when your nose runs?" So says Waldo, the spirit of 3D, at one of the best Disney Parks attractions of its kind: Muppet★Vision 3D at Disney's Hollywood Studios®. It's the sort of experience that gets better with every viewing. We ask you, how many shows feature an orchestra of penguins, an explosive salute to all nations (but mostly America) and the destruction of the theater? See it again and again with your Pass!

Another fine mess of Muppet mirth and mayhem is headed your way on March 21, as Disney's Muppets Most Wanted premieres in movie theaters everywhere. The new movie stars Kermit the Frog, evil Muppet newcomer Constantine, Ricky Gervais, Miss Piggy, Ty Burrell and Tina Fey, plus more cameos than ever. It's a round-the-world romp with great new songs, loads of laughs and a mysterious bad-guy amphibian (who looks strangely like a certain frog we all know).

Disney's Muppets Most Wanted is directed by James Bobin, who cowrote the screenplay with Nicholas Stoller. It features original songs by Oscar® winner Bret McKenzie (which you can enjoy on the soundtrack from Walt Disney Records).

Don't forget to bring your Passholder ID and photo ID to the AMC® Downtown Disney Dine-In 24 Theatres to get your discount when you see Disney's Muppets Most Wanted!

"M" SECRET

Look up before you enter the Muppet★Vision 3D theater. The fishing net filled with colorful gelatin cubes is a little Muppet joke—and a loving tribute to Disney Legend Annette Funicello. "A net full of" ...get it? Wocka wocka!

Look...here comes the brand-new parade!

When a new daytime parade comes floating down Main Street, U.S.A.®, it's always a major event—especially for Passholders, who love to see them over and over again, spotting each detail and waving at every Disney Character.

Disney Festival of Fantasy Parade is going to offer a lot in both departments. We're talking an all-star cast here: Rapunzel, Flynn Rider, Peter Pan, Captain Hook, Jiminy Cricket, Pinocchio, Merida, Ariel and a host of others—even evil Maleficent as a dragon!

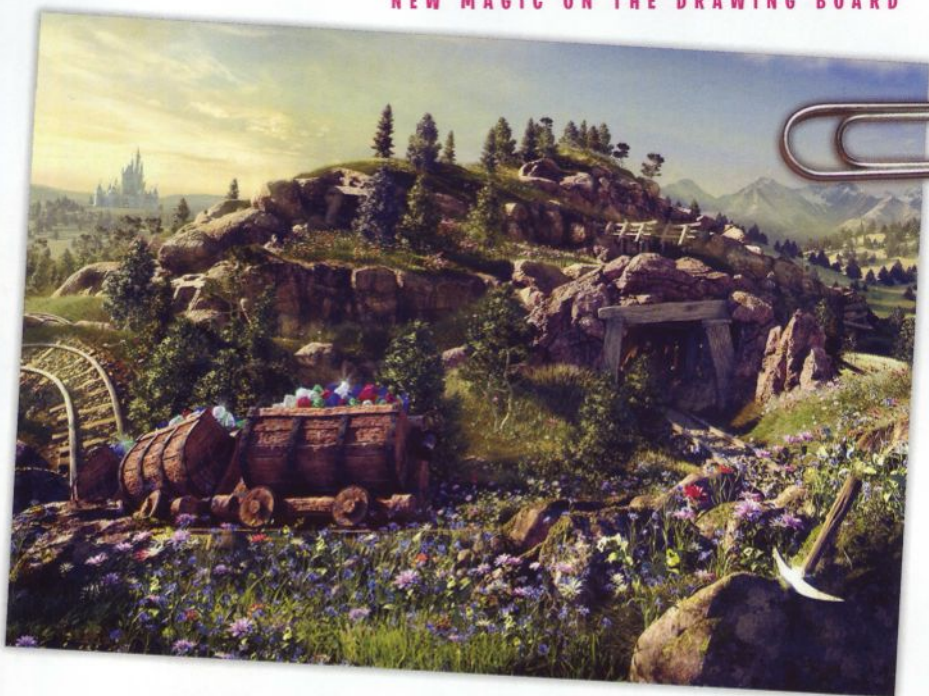

And as for spectacle and details, the new floats will be lavish and lovable, from a rocking Never Land pirate ship to a whimsical hot air balloon carrying our favorite couple: Mickey and Minnie.

Look for lots of kinetic gadgetry, sprightly choreography and even a hummable new parade song (that alone is an event in itself!). Among the stories the parade will bring to life are The Little Mermaid, Sleeping Beauty, Dumbo, Pinocchio, Peter Pan, Tangled, the Disney•Pixar film Brave and more.

Pick your place along the parade route for the new Disney Festival of Fantasy Parade when it makes its debut this spring at Magic Kingdom® Park.

Up! Down! Side to Side! Whoa-ho!

More big news! This spring, the New Fantasyland™ excitement continues with one of the most exciting attractions ever. The Seven Dwarfs Mine Train will literally be front and center when you visit New Fantasyland at Magic Kingdom® Park.

You'll go into the mines where the Seven Dwarfs work (just like in the movie!) and experience what it's like in the deep underground where glimmering gems are your best friend.

From the Dwarfs' cottage, you will find yourself on a rollicking, musical ride where a million diamonds shine. It's fast but family-friendly, and includes a one-of-a-kind train where the cars will rock from side to side as you explore the mine!

While you're looking around at all the gems, you may notice a few other things that also make this mine a very special place:

- The Dwarfs—The archive recordings of the original vocal cast of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs can be heard in the attraction, along with new performances by top Hollywood voice actors like Corey Burton (Return to Neverland, Star Wars: The Clone Wars) and David Ogden Stiers (Lilo & Stitch, Beauty and the Beast).
- 360° View—The Seven Dwarfs Mine Train is the first Disney Parks attraction in which Guests can walk around all its sides.

When completed, this steel roller coaster will wrap up the largest expansion in Magic Kingdom history! And as a Passholder, you can journey with the Seven Dwarfs as often as you like!

"M" SECRET

When you experience the Seven Dwarfs Mine Train, see if you can spot two vultures, the latter of which appeared in the original Magic Kingdom attraction, Snow White's Scary Adventures®!

You can run! You can walk! You can run!

Olympic Medalist Jeff Galloway has been running for over 55 years, but you don't have to be an elite athlete to run one of the Walt Disney World® 5K or 10K races, half marathons or full marathons. As a Passholder, you can take advantage of early Passholder entry dates, too!

GOOFY MYTH: People really shouldn't run long distances.

JEFF GALLOWAY: According to anthropologists, that is how we survived. The need for running and walking are embedded in our genetics and biomechanics. By gradually going from walking into running—and adding walk breaks—you can adapt, rebuild and become more efficient at any age. The simple training plan of walking breaks during a run greatly reduces body stress and the risk of injury.

GOOFY MYTH: You need Jack Skellington's physique to run a race.

JEFF: At the Walt Disney World Marathon and other events, you'll see all kinds of body shapes. Anyone starting an exercise program MUST check with their physician first and then get the proper training. That's where run/walk/run comes in. It allows the cardiovascular system to gradually adapt without becoming overstressed.

GOOFY MYTH: Running is bad for your joints.

JEFF: Neither I nor my orthopedic consultants could find a single study proving that running harms your joints. That applies to everyone, including folks who might not resemble what some might perceive as the typical runner.

GOOFY MYTH: Running means sprinting until you can't stand it.

JEFF: That wasn't even done in the first Olympic marathon in history. At the 1896 Olympic marathon in Athens, all the competitors walked for significant portions.

GOOFY MYTH: Running through Disney Parks is no big deal.

JEFF: Not only do you see a lot of the main Walt Disney World locations, you also see really interesting, behind-the-scenes glimpses that most never see. Nighttime races offer yet a different kind of magic. It's like getting a special key to the kingdom.

“M” SECRET

Look for art celebrating two landmark Sherman Brothers musicals—Mary Poppins and The Happiest Millionaire—in the Deluxe Studio second bedroom.

Refined elegance, modern amenities

To Passholders like you, Disney Resorts are a home away from home and the Theme Parks are your backyard playground. But is it possible to call Victorian ambience and modern amenities “home”? It most certainly is at The Villas at Disney’s Grand Floridian Resort & Spa, the latest Deluxe Villa Resort.

Behold granite countertops, crown molding, in-mirror TV and balconies for each room. The airy spaciousness accommodates your family’s needs no matter what size, with accommodations ranging from Deluxe Studios that sleep five to luxurious three-bedroom Grand Villas that sleep 12. And of course, there’s a sleek monorail nearby at Disney’s Grand Floridian Resort & Spa that can whisk you to Magic Kingdom® Park in minutes.

Where the luxury of the Victorian era meets Disney magic, The Villas at Disney’s Grand Floridian Resort & Spa is truly a destination for vacations you never outgrow.

Show Your Disney Side!

Few can show their Disney Side quite like a Passholder. And this year, you can really let loose with your family. As the theory goes, everybody has two sides. There's your normal, everyday side that goes to work, studies for school and doesn't do anything crazy. But you also have another, more fun side—your Disney Side. That's the side you simply can't wait to share as a family. It's the side of you that laughs more, screams more, says "yes" more and just plain lives life to the fullest. It's the side of you that comes out to play the moment your family steps through the gates of a Walt Disney World® Theme Park.

Visit DisneySide.com and see fun ways to share your Disney Side. Then tag your favorite photos and videos with #DisneySide and discover the many ways other Guests are sharing their Disney Sides. Throughout the year, we'll also be unveiling fun social media programs to get Guests even more involved. Share the magic right now and come show your Disney Side with your family!

Mighty lucky days of St. Patrick's fun!

It'll be a rollicking good time this St. Patrick's Day at the Downtown Disney® Area with song, dance, food, entertainment and more. And because the celebration can't be confined to one day, the festivities stretch over 11 days, Friday, March 7–Monday, March 17, 2014!

RAGLAN ROAD™ Irish Pub and Restaurant will be party central for this third annual event that celebrates all things Irish. The Willis Clan, We Banjo 3, Goitse and more will hit the stage with their infectious music—plus the restaurant's great house bands: Raglan Rebels, Creel and The Brayzen Heads. Also not to be missed are Elevation, the preeminent U2 tribute band, and the RAGLAN ROAD Dancers.

Brenda Willis of The Willis Clan (with all 12 Willis children playing, singing or dancing) describes their music as a "unique blend of Irish, pop, rock, country and bluegrass. John Cooke and his RAGLAN ROAD staff make us feel like we're back in Ireland. They're the real deal."

But get there early, so you enjoy all the entertainment inside the restaurant and outside at the Downtown Disney Area.

They love Disney Parks too!

Disney Frozen songwriters

Oscar® nominees Robert Lopez and Kristen Anderson-Lopez wrote the songs for Disney Frozen (which, thanks to Disney fans like you, was a #1 hit at the box office and a #1 album on the Billboard® charts). They also created the songs in Finding Nemo—The Musical at Disney's Animal Kingdom® Theme Park.

Most of all, they're a Disney Parks family, too (along with daughters Katie and Anna). "We consume more Disney stuff than we create," Kristen told us. "Bobby keeps buying Frozen merchandise. Every day I ask, 'Okay, what did you buy today?' and he says something like, 'I got the two crowns!'"

Let's all root for Bobby and Kristen on Oscar Sunday, March 2 at 7e/4p on ABC!

Popular TV show stars

When British-born TV star Simon Templeman (who plays Larry Bird on ABC-TV's hysterically funny yet heartwarming Friday night sitcom The Neighbors) married Anaheim-born TV star Rosalind Chao (a former Disneyland® international tour guide), the reception was at the Disneyland® Hotel.

Brooklyn native Lenny Venito (who stars as Marty Weaver on The Neighbors) is still a Walt Disney World® kid at heart.

"I love roller coasters," said Lenny. "And I'm a big fan of the fried dough. The waffle looks like Mickey, the chocolate things look like Mickey...I like how everything is in the shape of Mickey's head!"

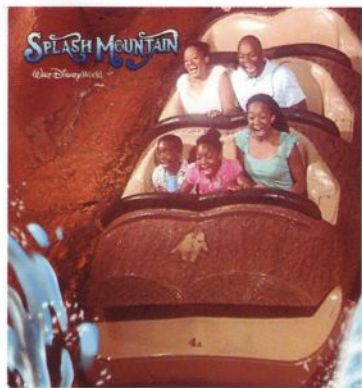

For the latest out-of-this-world-in-New-Jersey adventures of The Neighbors, watch all-new episodes Fridays at 8:30/7:30c on ABC.

Broadway Belle

Did you know one of Broadway's leading ladies is a Disney Passholder? Tony® Award nominee Kerry Butler (whose many starring roles include Belle in Beauty and the Beast), her husband Joey Mazzarino (Marty on Sesame Street®) and their kids love to visit Walt Disney World Resort.

Kerry—whose album of Disney songs is called Faith, Trust and Pixie Dust—really admires the Disney Parks performers. "We do eight shows a week," she said. "They do several shows a day! I am so impressed with all of them."
