Welcome To La Spezia, Italy

La Spezia is located in northern Italy in a province of the Liguria region. La Spezia was originally inhabited in Roman times, but little is known of the history before 1276, when it was sold to Genoa by the Fieschi family.

In 1857, La Spezia became a naval headquarter after the transfer of the military fleet from Genoa in 1857. The area was severely damaged by World War II; however, the city has rebuilt itself and the mix of ancient and modern architectural styles can be seen throughout the city today.

Pisa was originally an Etruscan settlement in the 5th century BC. In 179 BC the town of Pisa became a Roman colony and was developed to be an important naval base. In the 11th century, Pisa was further developed into one of the most powerful Italian Maritime Republics. During the Middle Ages, the buildings that made Pisa famous were built such as the Duomo, the cathedral's bell tower and the well known Leaning Tower.

Florence was originally founded in 59 BC by Julius Caesar. Florence gradually assumed leadership and became a free republic in the 12th century. Florence's increase in wealth and power coincided with becoming one of the most cultural cities of the world. In the 15th century, Florence was ruled by the two most able members of the Medici family: Cosimo the Elder and Lorenzo the Magnificent. The Medici family left the entire family collection to the city where some of the most famous art collections can be seen today.
