An Overview of Falmouth

Jamaica's fourth and newest cruise port is located in the north coast town of Falmouth, the capital of Trelawny parish. Well positioned between the popular ports of Ocho Rios and Montego Bay, Falmouth's two-berth port is a triangular peninsula that can accommodate the largest cruise ships in the world within a very short walk of the city's historic Georgian sights.

During its heyday, Falmouth was one of the busiest ports in Jamaica and the send-off point for sugar, molasses, rum and coffee bound for England. In return, the English tall ships arrived in Falmouth with African slaves and other staples of 18th-century colonial life. Falmouth's economic status began to decline in the 1800's after the end of slavery and the town reverted to a sleepy seaside village far off most tourists' maps.

The port held its grand opening in March 2011. Many Jamaicans felt that Falmouth – home to one of the Caribbean's largest colonial historic districts, with its collection of intact Georgian homes – had long been ignored. The arrival of the Falmouth cruise port has led to a local renaissance of sorts in the greater town, with some of the old Georgian homes in the erstwhile economic shipping powerhouse being restored to their former glory.
