Welcome to Corfu

Corfu is part of a cluster of islands called the Ionian Islands, located in the country of Greece. Also known as "The Emerald Island", Corfu is located south of Albania and to the west of the island, across the Ionian Sea, is Italy.

Corfu is an island rich with lush landscapes and inspiring views. The first Greek university (the Ionian Academy) was founded in Corfu, along with the first philharmonic orchestra and the first school of fine arts. The island is steeped in Venetian, French and British history among other cultural influences.

A Corinthian colony in 8th century BC, Corfu has since been ruled by many different groups - including the Roman Empire, the Byzantine Empire and the Venetian Empire. In 1864, Corfu was finally restored to Greece.
