PATRIOT DAY

Welcome to Tenerife, Canary Islands

Tenerife is located 180 miles from the coast of Africa and is the largest of the seven Canary Islands. It is also the most populated island of Spain. The highest mountain in all of Spain, Mt. Teide, is situated here.

The scattered beaches along its breathtaking coastline are ranked among the top 10 beaches of Spain. Tenerife has many different landscapes: from cactus deserts of the lowlands, to alpine forests along the way up to the plateau that sits below the volcano Mt. Teide.

The first inhabitants of Tenerife, the Guanches, arrived around the 1st century BC and lived in caves on the island.

In the late 1300s, Spanish explorers discovered the area and by the end of the 1400s, the Spanish had conquered all 7 of the Canary Islands. The world's most westerly chartered point at the time, the Canary Islands became the last stopping point of voyages to the New World.
