HALLOWEEN ON THE HIGH SEAS

Twice a long time ago...

Before the time of now, there was Halloween. Not the Halloween of today, filled with merriment and pranks, but a darker celebration. The night was filled with mystery. The moon seemed to shine a little bit brighter, and in every shadow lurked something unimaginable. This was the time of the Pumpkin King.

The Pumpkin King was the first caretaker of Halloween. He had a long, lanky, skeletal body with a round pumpkin for a head. His voice was deep, and his laugh could send shivers down the bravest of men's spines. Every year, he waited, designing frights for the one night of the year that was darker than the rest. He sailed through the night, spinning tales of mischief and the macabre. He was the thing under the bed, the eyes in the closet, the sound in the hall and the thing that went bump in the night.

But as the years grew on, the Pumpkin King grew weary. He needed someone to help him keep the history of his most beloved holiday. So he reached in his head and retrieved four pumpkin seeds, each one representing a different characteristic of his wicked personality. He planted them around and watched as the seed grew into beautifully morbid trees. The tree blooms only once a year. Deep within its dark, gnarled branches hold the remnant spirits of Halloween memories gone past.

A Caretaker tends to the trees. These Caretakers spin the tales of the many customs of Halloween. According to the legend, once everyone has learned the who, the what and the why, the spirit of the Pumpkin King will bring the tree to life.
