Welcome to St. George's, Grenada

Known as the "Island of Spice," Grenada is an island getaway you many never want to leave. Boasting rolling hills, rock-strewn terrain, pristine beaches and miles upon miles of unspoiled rainforest, this exotic island in the southeastern Caribbean Sea offers something for everyone.

Originally home to the Arawaks and then later to the Carib Indians, Grenada was "discovered" by Christopher Columbus in 1498. Due to the strong defense by the Caribs, it wasn't until the 17th century that the French finally settled the island. Battles waged between France and Britain until the British formally gained possession of the land in 1783. The British ruled the land until 1974 when Grenada gained independence.
