Welcome to Heraklion, Greece

Heraklion, also Iraklion is the largest city and administrative capital of the island of Crete, which lies along the North coast of the island. It is the 4th largest city in Greece. Crete is the largest and most populous of the Greek Islands and the fifth-largest island in the Mediterranean Sea.

Beginning around 2700 BC, Crete was the center of Europe's first advanced civilization. Over the years, the island has fallen under the rule of many powers - from the Romans to the Venetians to the Ottomans.

In the late 1800s, Crete became an autonomous state and shortly thereafter, was united with Greece.
