ST. MAARTEN OVERVIEW

The divided status of St. Martin/St. Maarten is a result of the colonial tug-of-war between European powers in the Caribbean. The island was inhabited well before Europeans arrived. An archaeological dig in St. Martin has unearthed tools and pottery from Amerindian settlers that have been dated to 550 BC. The fierce and cannibalistic Caribs had taken over the island when Columbus landed on it in 1493. As a result, the Spanish never developed the island after claiming it. Dutch settlers arrived in the early 1600s. Thereafter, every colonial power active in the Americas owned a piece of the island at one point or another. Legend has it that a Frenchman and a Dutchman finally settled an argument over territorial rights by pacing off their shares.

Of the 37 square miles/ 96 square kilometers, the French got the bigger slice, but the Dutch got the most valuable real estate: the Salt Pond and the harbor. The international airport is also on the Dutch side. The 1648 Treaty of Concordia marked the formal division of land. The Dutch part of the island is administered from Curaçao as is the rest of the Netherlands Antilles, while the French part is administered from Guadeloupe.

Safety Ashore Information

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. – Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
