FEATURED VARIETY ACTS THIS VOYAGE

THE COMEDY & JUGGLING OF NIELS DUNKER

Niels Duinker first thought of becoming a successful international performer when he was 12 years old, and well before the end of his teenage years his dream had become a reality. Niels won a Gold Medal in the 2009 Taiwan Circus Festival and he has worked all over Europe, in Asia, and made special guest appearances in the United States. His childhood interest in the art of juggling has led this motivated young man on a journey around the world - and it has only just begun. Modestly beginning his career in a Rotterdam youth circus, Niels now spends his time jetting between high-profile engagements at theaters, casinos, cruise ships, theme parks, and corporate events. Regardless of the venue, audiences always embrace his energetic execution, boyish charm, and dynamic dexterity.

THE MAGIC OF HECTOR IS MAGIC

Hector was born in Seville, Spain, during the Full Moon, a symbol of creative fecundity. Early in his life, when he was eight, he encountered professional magic by becoming a member of the Sevillian Magic Circle, thanks to the orientations of a full time magician and friend, Eliseo. After this, he continued his training at the "Viento Sur" (South Wind) Theater School in Seville. During that time he achieved to create and produce his own shows that he performed in diverse theaters and TV. At the age of 17 he got one of his first big challenge. He had opportunity to produce his own show during three consecutive seasons (2001 - 2003) for the "Isla Mágica" (Magic Island) Amusement Park in Seville.

THE COMEDY & VENTRILOQUISM OF PAUL ZERDIN

Paul was the first outright winner - by over 100,000 votes - of the Big Big Talent Show hosted by Jonathan Ross on EWT. He made his TV debut as a magician on BBC's Tricky Business. However, within 6 months, he appeared as a ventriloquist on Hanger 17 and shortly after that landed a two year contract presenting the Disney produced kids program Rise and Shine for GMTV.
