Welcome to Kirkwall

City of Chains

The Royal Burgh of Kirkwall is the capital of the amazing Orkney archipelago, a collection of 70 islands located north of mainland Scotland and strategically situated on a broad bay at the dividing point between the East and West Mainland. What was once a quiet place of contemplation is now a bustling market town, complete with a lively center for shopping and dining.

Founded in the early 11th century when Earl Rognvald Brusson established his kingdom here, this distant northerly outpost of the historic seafaring empire was not at the edge of their world but at the very center of it.

The city's long, winding, paved main thoroughfare and twisting wynds (lanes) add to Kirkwall's charm, with the old town area often described as one of the best examples of an ancient Norse town. Kirkwall is also the terminal for many of the ferries to Orkney's north isles.

Kirkwall's most prominent feature is its sandstone St. Magnus Cathedral, widely considered to be the finest medieval building in the north of Scotland. Enjoy this historic Viking town, with its old world charm and new world conveniences.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
