Grand Cayman Port Information

The Cayman Islands were first sighted by European explorers in 1503, in a wayward voyage headed by Christopher Columbus. Though the two smaller islands were discovered on this fateful trip, the largest of them, Grand Cayman, would escape attention by sailors until 1655, when the area was claimed by the British. For centuries from the time of their discovery, the Cayman Islands would provide a place for ships to come ashore and rest on their journeys into the Caribbean. Crewmen on these ships would routinely replenish themselves on the meat provided by the native population of turtles.

By the 19th century, Grand Cayman was overtaken by pirates. It would take political upheaval and the establishment of a local government under British rule to transform the island into what it is today.

Discover a place that—once a welcome refuge for buccaneers—is today a treasured tourist hotspot. From sparkling surf to the bounty of local shops, whatever your pleasure, you'll find it here.

SAFETY ABOARD INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences aboard, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of our passengers. As in any large public gathering, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid open bars, liquor flows and overly lit areas.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and social areas into secluded territory. If securing your belongings have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identify Credit Card and other card numbers. Please remain vigilant in maintaining the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your stateroom and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and binoculars should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave all transportation tickets and other travel documents in your stateroom. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Disney Cruise passport or other government-issued photo ID. There is a fee for a new passport and a fee for a passport photo.
- Have a plan for getting to the shore. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
