Welcome to Funchal, Madeira

Madeira, Portugal is a refreshing and invigorating port of call, located on a string of islands in the North Atlantic between Portugal and Africa. This resort destination is celebrated for its sweet Madeira wine, burgeoning biodiversity, handicrafts and festive celebrations. Its fortunate location in the North Atlantic off the coast of Africa provides temperatures that hover in the mid-70s Fahrenheit most of the year, with refreshing trade winds and full-time sunshine.

Most visitors are not aware that this charming island nation's history began as a matter of circumstance. In 1419, Portuguese Prince Henry, and his fleet set out on a fateful voyage along the mysterious west coast of Africa. It was widely regarded as an intrepid and perhaps foolhardy journey, as common belief was that the world was flat. The sailors never encountered the edge of the world, blown off course and separated from the fleet-chanced upon an island named Porto Santo or "Holy Harbor." The discovery of the nearby island of Madeira was soon to follow.

Visitors are treated to old-fashioned delights and restful recreation in Madeira for the entire family. Enjoy the spread of reserves and gardens all over the city, or go beachcombing on the pebbled shoreline of Funchal, the Madeira Region's capital. In town, stroll by a monument dedicated to Captain Zarco in front of the bank of Portugal building, and while you're there, shop for souvenirs in the bustling downtown district.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave all transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. - Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark, quiet areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
