Bridgetown, Barbados Port Information

Barbados is a sovereign island country in the Lesser Antilles. It is located 250 miles northeast of Trinidad and Tobago. The Port of Bridgetown is the country's capital and largest city. With its pristine waters, British colonial history and idyllic climate, this limestone island ringed by coral reefs is a tropical gem you'll not soon forget—a mere 166 square miles, with plenty to do.

It is believed that Barbados' first inhabitants were the Amerindians, who reached the island around 1623 BC from the part of South America known today as Venezuela. Various tribes followed over the next 3,000 years, including the Arawaks and the Caribs. In 1537, the Spanish and Portuguese happened upon the island, christening it "Los Barbados," supposedly after the hanging roots of the Bearded Fig Tree.

By the time the British arrived in 1627, the original inhabitants had been virtually wiped out. Barbados was a boon for agriculture with its mild climate, rich soil and favorable geography. English rule lasted some 339 years; Barbados gained its independence in 1966.

Important Information about Going Ashore:

In Barbados it is against the law for anyone, even for children, to dress in camouflage clothing or carry items made with camouflage material. Smoking in public buildings or structures is also against the law.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. - Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
