Welcome to Le Havre

Le Havre is a major port in northern France's Upper Normandy region, where the Seine River meets the English Channel, and has always been the harbor for Paris.

The city's history is deep and complex, yet stands today as an outstanding post-war example of urban planning and architecture. A UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2005, Le Havre is an ode to modernism, evoking, perhaps more than any other French city, France's energy and optimism after the War.

All but obliterated in September 1944 by Allied bombing raids, the city was completely rebuilt by the Belgian architect Auguste Perret, whose bright, airy modernist vision remains, miraculously, largely intact. Considered exceptional among many reconstructed cities for its unity and integrity, Le Havre is an ancient and textured city ready to be explored.

Le Havre has also been dubbed the birthplace of the Impressionist style of painting. The great Impressionist artist Claude Monet painted a picture of an impression of the sun rising through the industrial chimneys of Le Havre in 1872. An art critic, unmoved by the canvas, entitled "Impression, Sunrise," dismissively dubbed Monet's style Impressionism. The name stuck, becoming associated with one of the best-loved art movements in the world. In fact, you'll find the largest Impressionist collection in France outside of Paris at Malraux Museum.

Attractions include one of France's finest art museums, renowned for its collection of impressionist works. Le Havre is a regular port of call for cruise ships.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
