Welcome to Dublin

"A Breath of Fresh Air"

It's said that Guinness tastes better in Dublin, since it's fresh from the factory, but this delightful town has so much more to offer than their extraordinary beers. This bustling city with the big personality is the capital of Ireland and has been making waves since the 9th century.

Although one may have to dig deep to find traces of its Viking past, the city's rich thousand-year history since then is in evidence all around you, from its medieval castle and cathedrals to the glory of the 18th century, when Dublin was the most handsome Georgian city in the Empire.

One of the best things about Dublin is its size. It's more like a big capital "village" - small enough to fill a perfect visit, yet plenty to see. From its cobbled streets to classic pubs, Dublin's elegant Georgian architecture makes it one of Europe's most attractive capitals and one of the easiest to explore.

Dublin is legendary as a center for culture, food and entertainment. A rambling, unplanned walk around Dublin will ensure you'll uncover your own city gems - from amazing home-baked treats and coffee in little hidden cafés to historical landmarks with thrilling back stories or even a chance conversation with a Dublin character - this city is layered and unique.

As residents of one of the friendliest capital cities in the world, Dubliners are naturally gregarious, amiable and witty, known to be quite charismatic and great hosts. So if you wander the city with a little purpose, you'll add to the list of pleasant surprises.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
