Tomorrow's Highlight - Copenhagen, Denmark

Denmark's charming capital city is a metropolis, but one with a human face. In fact, the residents of Copenhagen have been voted the happiest people in the world, and for good reason. The medieval city and its old, cobbled streets provide an evocative backdrop for a thriving cultural scene, evident through its art galleries, museums, music and theatres.

Copenhagen is one of Europe's oldest capitals, inhabited for the past 6000 years, and the Danish monarchy is the oldest in the world. Despite conflict, power struggles and outright wars, Copenhagen continued to grow and prosper and became the capital of the Danish Kingdom in the 13th century.

Today, Copenhagen is a grand and vibrant city of the Baltic, full of landmarks from centuries of eventful history, side by side with modern architecture and thoughtful urban planning. You never have to walk far to find a splendid royal palace or one of the countless edifices of royal houses of the past. Here you'll find Europe's longest city pedestrian street, Stroget, winding its way through the inner city, with shops full of world-class Danish design and fashion.

Discover the idyllic setting for one of the world's most environmentally friendly cities and discover Scandinavia at its best.
