Welcome to St. Petersburg

Russia's Crown Jewel

St. Petersburg is a city of haunting magnificence, an imperial capital that seems to have been built as a monument to its own passing. Less than three centuries have passed since Peter the Great began building his grand city on the Gulf of Finland, but it is difficult to visit its vast squares and palaces without feeling the enormity of the gulf that separates that time from our own.

A town for pedestrians, St. Petersburg is built on a series of islands that spread over a wide area, with approximately 60 rivers and canals that criss-cross the City and are spanned by nearly 400 bridges. From the mysterious twilight of the White Nights to world-class opera and ballet productions on magical winter evenings, St. Petersburg charms and entices.

The suburbs of St. Petersburg are part of Russia's historical and culture heritage. The splendid country residence of Russian Czars, their parks and architectural ensembles rank equal to the greatest architectural achievements of Western Europe as works of artistic perfection.

Considered the cultural heart of modern day Russia, here's your chance to discover one of the best preserved of living cities.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
