Welcome to Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Halifax is the provincial capital of Nova Scotia and a major business center known for its maritime history. The city is dominated by the hilltop Citadel, a star-shaped fort completed in the 1850s. Waterfront warehouses known as the Historic Properties recall Halifax's days as a trading hub for privateers, notably during the War of 1812.

Travelers say Halifax is best seen on foot, so start walking and immerse yourself in Halifax's rich history, then walk into any of Halifax's great bars and restaurants and catch some live music to round out your day.

For a city with more pubs and clubs per capita than almost any city in Canada, it's fitting that their most famous brew master was also the mayor - three times.

This is the kind of town that people flock to, not so much for the opportunities, but for the quality of life it offers. Sea breezes off the harbor keep the air clean, and parks and trees nestle between heritage buildings, cosmopolitan eateries and artsy shops. Several universities ensure that the population is young and the bars and nightclubs full. Stroll the historic waterfront, catch some live music and enjoy the best of what the Maritimes have to offer.

Enjoy this very walkable city, its friendly and upbeat culture and its equally friendly citizens.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions around the town of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity Cards and theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your stateroom and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave all transportation tickets and other travel documents in your stateroom. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Disney Cruise Line document or other government-issued photo ID. *Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most ports are required to consent to drug urine tests. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
