PORT OVERVIEW

Costa Maya is the first Western Caribbean port designed exclusively for the cruise ship industry and is strategically located just hours from Cancun on Mexico's southern Yucatan Peninsula. It is Comprised of 2 small villages, Mahahual and Xcalak. While Xcalak is approximately 37 miles south of the Costa Maya cruise port, the fishing village of Mahahual is only about 2 miles away. Mahahual has soft sand beaches, grass thatched palapas and a coral reef a short distance off-shore called Banco Chinchorro, as well as several bars, restaurants and shops.

Set against the deep turquoise sea, Costa Maya is comprised of three grand pavilions, artisan and Costa Maya shopping areas, a beach club, saltwater pools, fine restaurants and bars, and all the resources necessary to explore the surrounding jungle and coral reefs. It is the region's most complete and diverse port of call, providing cultural, natural and archaeological excursions and Mexican tourists in droves. These unique attractions lure many of these visitors to return over and over again. Many of these tourists end up becoming full time residents or retiring in Puerto Vallarta.

RESTRICTIONS ON U.S. CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS IN MEXICO

In September of 2010, the Mexican government enacted a law limiting the amount of U.S. dollars a Mexican business or individual may deposit into their bank account. Because of this limitation, some of the recommended stores in port may restrict the amount of U.S. dollars they will accept in settlement of your purchases. Please remember to take your credit card into port so that you may be able to take advantage of all the bargains these stores have to offer.

Safety Ashore Information

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. – Note: Some ports may require Guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
