SKAGWAY OVERVIEW

Located at the northern end of the Inside Passage, Skagway (population approx. 860) was once the jumping-off point for gold seekers headed to the Yukon. At the height of the gold rush in the late 1890s, the makeshift town of tents and shacks had a population of 20,000. In Skagway, they bought supplies for the hellish trek overland to the Yukon gold fields. But the town provided more than provisions—there to tempt the miners were painted ladies, gambling houses and 80 saloons! These days, Skagway's "rushers" come in on cruise ships. Next to Juneau, Skagway is the most popular port in the Southeast Alaska (at least 500,000 passengers disembark each year). Much of Skagway has been painstakingly restored and designated as the Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park. Although much of the town is now a replica of the real thing, every building along a two-block stretch of the main street was put up between 1897 and 1900.

Safety Ashore Information While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. - Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
