WELCOME HOME

Disney heroes take many forms. Some are of the traditionally “super” variety, wielding powers, avenging injustice and keeping us in our seats for bonus scenes after the credits. Others operate in more subtle fashion, operating without a Nordic hammer, Wakanda tech or an “incredible” amount of elasticity. From a video game “bad guy” to a badge-wearing bunny, and from an intergalactic scoundrel to a honey-loving bear, some of the most memorable heroes you’ll see on screen during this voyage don’t wear masks or tight pants (or, in the case of Winnie the Pooh, any pants).

Our Member Cruise entertainment slate celebrates a diverse array of Disney heroes, from those whose stories create movie magic to those whose Southern staples create culinary magic. (When hunger strikes, Chef Art Smith is my hero.) The days ahead will showcase the power of the human voice, the artistry of human hands and the human spirit of ageless mice.

But there’s another type of heroes we’ll celebrate during this sailing, and you won’t find them on the show schedule. You’ll see this kind of hero by the pool, at the bar, along the beaches of Castaway Cay and, if you look closely, even in your stateroom mirror.

Maybe you’re a teacher, a soldier or a first responder. Perhaps you’re someone who adopts, donates, volunteers or recycles. Maybe you’re the kind of hero who gives without receiving, drives without texting or pushes a stroller through Fantasyland without bruising a stranger.

Whether you’re a hero to your kids or your parents, your friends or your community, you’re a hero to all of us at Disney Vacation Club. So when you put on that Member Cruise baseball cap that arrived today in your welcome bag, think of it as, not just swag, but a hero’s disguise. And don’t worry. We won’t blow your cover.

Welcome home,

Ryan March

Paradise twice

By Terri Schultz, Senior Vice President and General Manager, Disney Vacation Club, Adventures by Disney and Golden Oak

While I'm no stranger to the Member Cruise tradition – I was part of the team behind the inaugural Member Cruise voyage in 2002 and have enjoyed countless others in the years since – this is my first as the leader of this magical community. I'm not just excited to be on this ship with all of you; I'm absolutely over the moon!

I'm equally thrilled about the made-for-Members experiences that will unfold in the days ahead, not just on this ship, but also on Castaway Cay.

Disney's private island is the kind of place you dream about when you're stuck in traffic, shoveling snow or unclogging a sink. Surrounded by crystal water, rimmed with white sand and topped with palms that sway in the Bahamian breeze, it's an island from which castaways may hope to never be rescued.

Disney Vacation Club could add nothing to Castaway Cay, and July 24 and 26 would still rank among the best days of 2018. But as Member Cruise veterans can attest, leaving well enough alone has never been our approach. Whether we're delivering gifts, decorating decks or turning the atrium into a theatre because we produced too much programming for traditional venues, elevating the already incredible Disney Cruise Line experience is kind of the point of a Member Cruise – perhaps the most spectacular example of what we call Membership Magic.

It's with that spirit in mind that we've one-upped ourselves once again by creating unique experiences for each of this sailing's Castaway Cay stops, celebrating the 90-year legacy of Disney's first couple with a "Member Mouse Party" on Tuesday and turning the place into an epic "Island of Heroes" on Thursday.

You'll read more about these one-of-a-kind celebrations in the pages ahead, along with details about the diverse lineup of onboard shows and experiences that'll test the limits of our four-night schedule.

Whether you find your happy place on an island, at a theatre or in a buffet line beside a Disney Legend, all of us at Disney Vacation Club, along with the amazing Crew of the beautiful Disney Dream, are looking forward to making memories with you in paradise.

MOUSE PARTY

Disney Vacation Club celebrates the 90-year legacy of Disney's first couple with a "Member Mouse Party" aboard the ship and on Castaway Cay.

As 2018 marks the 90th anniversary of "Steamboat Willie" – the animated short that launched Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse to stardom and ultimately paved the way for our magical community – Disney Vacation Club is thrilled to turn Tuesday into a one-of-a-kind "Member Mouse Party" for all ages.

Begin your day with the Member Mouse Party 5K Fun Run, a Member Cruise special edition of the Castaway Cay 5K, complete with a commemorative race bib (register at the ship's Guest Services or Port Adventures desk). During your more leisurely hours on the island, Test your skills (or dumb luck) at the Member Mouse Party Midway, with made-for-Members carnival and beach games inspired by some of Mickey's and Minnie's most memorable on-screen performances. Dance to the Disney music of our Member Mouse Party DJ. To further "feed" your fun, look for a special dish from Chef Art Smith on the

Back on the ship, enjoy a FunnelVision marathon of favorite films from Walt Disney Animation Studios (the studio that was started by a mouse) on the pool deck throughout the island day.

Later, check out a one-evening-only exhibit of Mickey & Minnie Treasures of the Walt Disney Archives in the atrium before walking the red carpet to a performance of The Golden Mickeys in the Walt Disney Theatre.

And return to the pool deck at the end of the night for the Member Mouse Party on Deck, where you'll dance with Mickey and the gang, pose for photos with Mickey-and-friends voice actors, enjoy celebratory sweets (not just any sweets – Chef Art's famous Hummingbird Cake!) and cap the night with the biggest fireworks show in Member Cruise history!

ISLAND OF HEROES

claimed by Disney Vacation Club®

Disney Vacation Club celebrates all things heroic by claiming Castaway Cay as an "Island of Heroes."

A Member Cruise is a voyage of heroes. Among us are parents, teachers, doctors, soldiers, first responders and those who put the toothpaste cap back on the tube. We're a community of friends who help friends, families who prioritize family and theme park guests who always move to the end of their row to make room for others.

This Thursday, we claim Castaway Cay as an "Island of Heroes," a place for every hero among us to enjoy a well-deserved return to paradise.

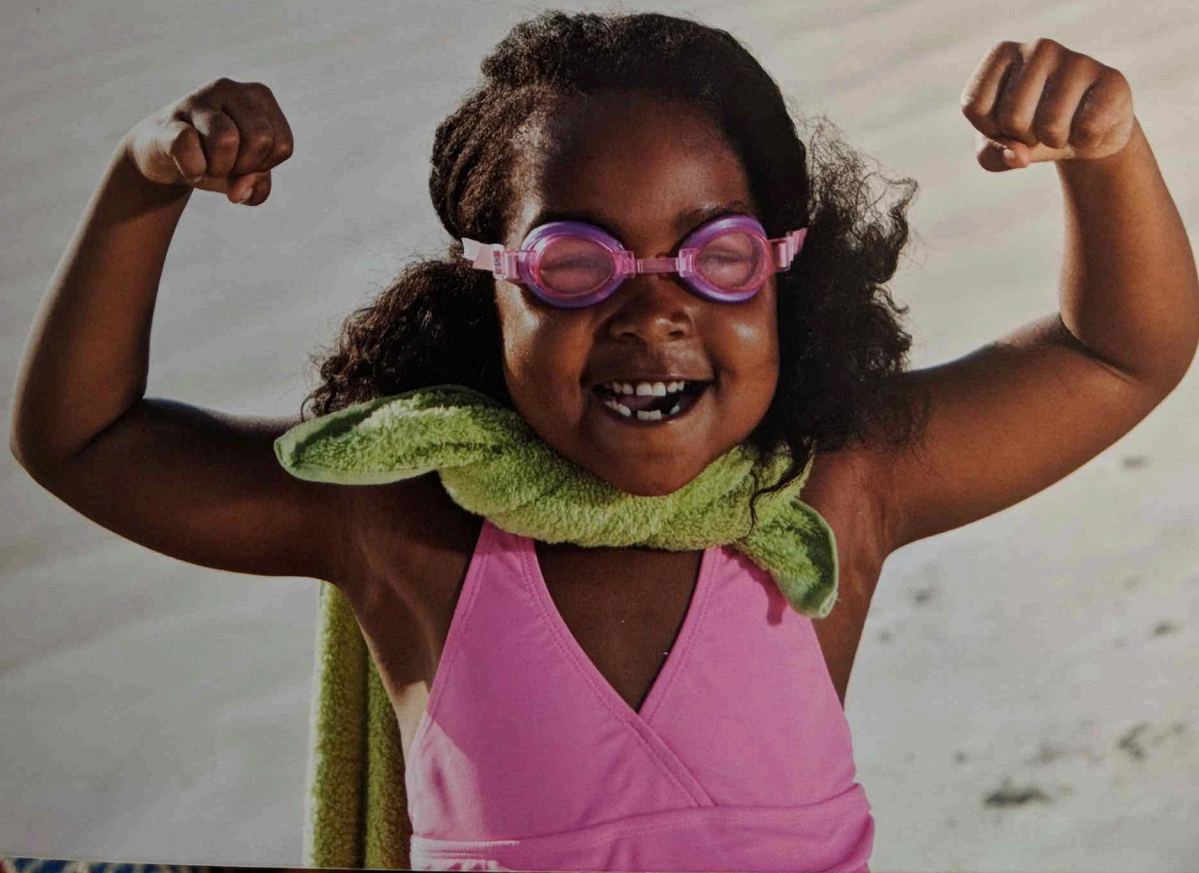

Get your day off to a heroic start and add another commemorative race bib to your collection by taking part in the Island of Heroes 5K Dash, a second Member Cruise special-edition of the Castaway Cay 5K (register at the ship's Guest Services or Port Adventures desk).

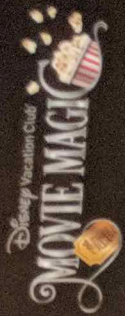

Assemble your incredible family to compete in (or cheer at) the Disney Vacation Club Hero Games, a silly series of beach games that'll playfully separate the well coordinated from the well intentioned. Let the epic music of our Island of Heroes DJ get your pulse pumping. Strike a heroic pose in front of an epic Island of Heroes sand sculpture commissioned on the beach by Disney Vacation Club.

Stop by our Heroes of the Community headquarters to help stuff backpacks with school supplies to be donated to local Bahamian children. (Whether you stuff one bag or many, you'll walk away a hero!) And feed your inner hero with another Chef Art Smith dish added to lunch service at Cookies BBQ. (Learn more about Chef Art on page 10.)

Back on the ship, where Members on deck will enjoy hero films on FunnelVision throughout the island day, catch a hero-themed, primetime concert in the Walt Disney Theatre from our friends at Disney on Broadway (see page 12)!

Disney Christopher Robin

presented by Disney Vacation Club

The Walt Disney Studios' Lisa Cabello presents a full, advance screening of Disney's Christopher Robin, a new live-action adventure opening in theaters on Aug. 3!

Enjoy an early reunion with old friends as Disney Vacation Club proudly presents a full, advance screening of Disney's Christopher Robin, opening in U.S. theatres on Aug. 3.

Ewan McGregor ("Fargo") stars as the boy who once embarked on imaginative adventures with his band of spirited stuffed animals but has since grown up and lost his way. It's up to Winnie the Pooh and friends to venture into our world and help Christopher Robin remember the playful kid who's still inside.

Voice-acting veteran Jim Cummings reprises his longtime roles as the voices of Winnie the Pooh and Tigger, joining a talented cast that also includes Golden Globe nominee Hayley Atwell ("Agent Carter") as Christopher Robin's wife, Evelyn; Bronte Carmichael as his daughter, Madeline; Emmy winner Mark Gatiss ("Sherlock") as his Christopher's boss, Giles Winslow; three-time Emmy winner Brad Garrett ("Everybody Loves Raymond") as Eeyore; Golden Globe nominee Toby Jones (Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets) as Owl; Nick Mohammed (The Martian) as Piglet; Oscar winner Peter Capaldi ("Dr. Who") as Rabbit; and Oscar nominee Sophie Okonedo (The Secret Life of Bees) as Kanga.

Based on the beloved storybook characters of A.A. Milne and featuring new songs by Disney Legend Richard Sherman, Disney's Christopher Robin is directed by Golden Globe-nominee Marc Forster (Finding Neverland) from a screenplay by Alex Ross Perry (Golden Exits) and Oscar-nominee Allison Schroeder (Hidden Figures) and a story by Perry based on characters created by A.A. Milne and E.H. Shepard.

Due to the exclusive nature of this advance screening, cell phones, cameras and other recording devices, as well as bags of any kind, will be strictly prohibited, and a security-screening process will take place as you enter the theatre. Leaving prohibited items in your stateroom and arriving early will help get you to your seat as quickly as possible. Your cooperation allows us to continue offering these insider experiences. Thank you.

BEHIND THE SCENES

presented by Disney Vacation Club

Walt Disney Animation Studios' Josie Trinidad gives Members a behind-the-scenes look at Ralph Breaks the Internet, opening in U.S. theaters Nov. 21!

Building on the game-hopping adventures of 2012's Academy Award-nominated Wreck-It Ralph, this fall's Ralph Breaks the Internet leaves Litwak's video arcade behind and ventures into the uncharted, expansive and thrilling world of the Internet. It's there that video game bad guy Ralph (voice of John C. Reilly) and fellow misfit Vanellope von Schweetz (voice of Sarah Silverman) must risk it all in search of a replacement part to save Vanellope's video game, Sugar Rush.

The film is directed by Rich Moore (Wreck-It Ralph, Zootopia) and Phil Johnston (co-writer, Wreck-It Ralph, Zootopia), and produced by Clark Spencer (Bolt, Wreck-It Ralph, Zootopia).

Disney Vacation Club is thrilled to welcome the film's head of story, Josie Trinidad, to her first Member Cruise voyage for this special presentation. Josie, whose Disney credits include standout work as co-head of story on the Oscar-winning Zootopia and as a story artist on such modern classics as The Princess and the Frog, Tangled, Big Hero 6 and Wreck-It Ralph, will take Members behind the scenes of Ralph Breaks the Internet and even share sequences from the film (including some never before shared with a broad audience)!

Due to the exclusive nature of this presentation, cell phones, cameras and other recording devices, as well as bags of any kind, will be strictly prohibited, and a security-screening process will take place as you enter the theatre. Leaving prohibited items in your stateroom and arriving early will help get you to your seat as quickly as possible. Your cooperation allows us to continue offering these insider experiences. Thank you.

PETE DOCTER MICHAEL GIACCHINO

FROM SCENE TO SCORE

presented by Disney Vacation Club

The legendary director and composer of Pixar Animation Studios' Up and Inside Out reveal how these Academy Award-winning films developed from scene to score.

In calling Inside Out "the best Disney-Pixar film since Up," the Chicago Tribune highlighted the special kind of magic that happens when the filmmaking vision of Pete Docter meets the music of Michael Giacchino.

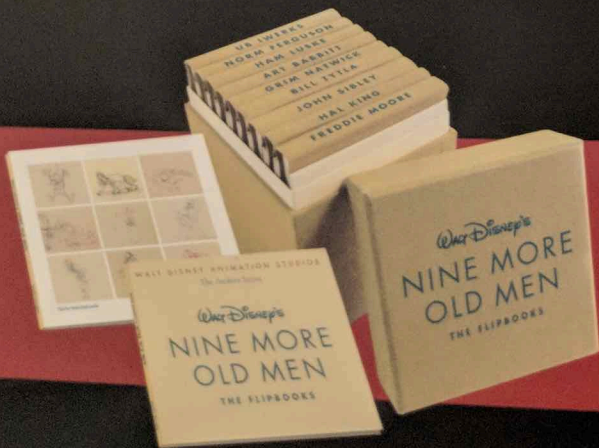

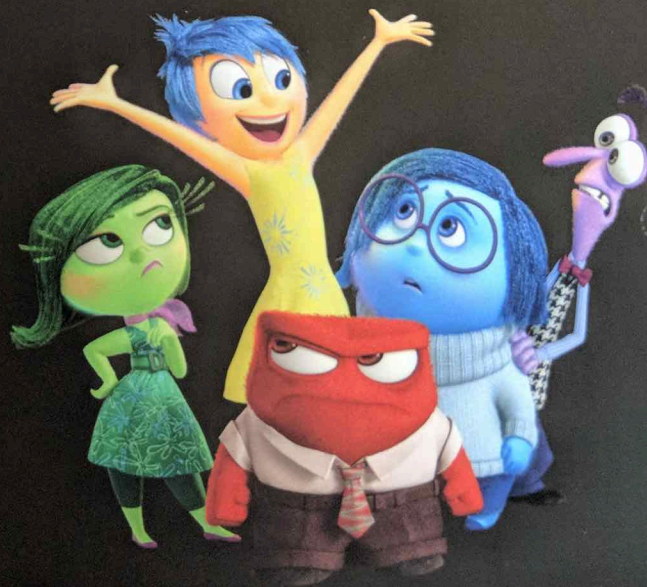

The longtime friends and collaborators have created some of the silver screen's most memorable and emotional moments, from Bing Bong's ultimate sacrifice in Inside Out to Carl Fredrickson's beautifully encapsulated back story in the dialogue-free opening of Up (the latter of which was described by the Los Angeles Times as "a remarkable feat of motion picture bravery and technical virtuosity").

Pete is now Chief Creative Officer at Pixar Animation Studios, where in addition to directing Up and Inside Out, the Oscar- and Annie-winner has directed Monsters, Inc., executive produced Brave and Monsters University, and written the original stories behind Toy Story, Toy Story 2, Monsters, Inc., WALL·E, Up and Inside Out.

Michael, who's just a Tony Award away from becoming an EGOT (a famously short list of artists who've won an Emmy, Grammy, Oscar and Tony), has scored a sterling string of Pixar hits, including but not limited to The Incredibles, Incredibles 2 (as well as the new Incredicoaster at Disney California Adventure Park), Ratatouille, Up, Inside Out and Coco. Beyond Pixar, Michael's credits include numerous scores for Disney (Zootopia, Tomorrowland), ABC ("Alias," "LOST"), Marvel (Spider-Man: Homecoming, Doctor Strange) and Lucasfilm (Rogue One: A Star Wars Story).

Join these filmmaking legends – each making their Member Cruise debut – in the Walt Disney Theatre for a revealing look at their creative process as they examine Up and Inside Out from standout scene to sweeping score!

A limited number of copies of Walt Disney's Nine More Old Men boxed set of flip books paying tribute to Disney's early animation personally signed by author Pete Docter, are available for purchase in the Mickey's Mainsail shop during this Member Cruise voyage.

JARED BUSH

FROM SCRIPT TO SCREEN

presented by Disney Vacation Club

The screenwriter behind Walt Disney Animation Studios' Zootopia and Moana reveals how television and film projects develop from the script to the screen.

A small-town bunny defies the naysayers, becomes a big-city cop, finds an unlikely partner and shatters social stereotypes. A teenage girl defies her father's wishes and voyages beyond the reef to find herself and save her island.

These cinematic stories are among the growing legacies of screenwriter Jared Bush, whose critically acclaimed work on the Academy Award-winning Zootopia and Academy Award-nominated Moana continued the recent renaissance of Walt Disney Animation Studios.

Jared, who along with his directing partner Byron Howard is in development on an upcoming film, is here aboard his first Member Cruise to take Members inside the highly collaborative, frequently challenging and always rewarding process of scripting stories for television and film.

ENTERTAINMENT

in the Atrium

The ship's elegant atrium becomes a central theatre during our voyage's entertainment-filled day at sea, with rows of seats added to the floor and standing room available along the rails above. Here's a look at the atrium's three unique, one-time-only shows.

Marvel at the unique talents of visual artists as Disney characters materialize on the easel, desk and griddle.

Disney author and historian Tim O'Day welcomes a trio of unique artists to the atrium to share stories of their remarkable careers and unleash their equally remarkable talents.

Working her magic in pencil is Member Cruise favorite Stacia Martin, a Disneyland Resort-based artist and historian whose elegant character art and seemingly limitless historical insights have captivated legions of fans through Disney Parks, cruise ships, broadcasts, books, record albums and more.

Bringing a cinematic perspective to the proceedings is Disney Legend Floyd Norman, whose animation career began under the direction of Walt Disney himself on such classics as Sleeping Beauty, The Sword in the Stone and The Jungle Book. Floyd has contributed in the decades since to everything from Robin Hood, Mulan and The Hunchback of Notre Dame to Toy Story 2 and Monsters, Inc.

Joining our Disney duo and working in the nontraditional medium of pancake batter is Dan Drake, a former diner cook whose imaginative pancake designs led to escalating tips, viral videos, television appearances and, eventually, a thriving "Dancakes" business through which detailed characters magically materialize with the flip of his spatula.

Be there as these three uniquely talented artists share their stories and draw some of their favorite Disney characters live on stage. Remember to stick around for the end of the show, when a few lucky Members will walk away with some of the artists' creations!

A limited number of copies of A Kiss Goodnight by Richard Sherman, personally signed by illustrators Adrienne Brown and Disney Legend Floyd Norman, are available for purchase in the Mickey's Mainsail shop during this Member Cruise voyage.

Your Disney Vacation Club Member Cruise: Now with more Stacia!

Want more Stacia Martin in your Member Cruise? (To answer "no" would be inhuman.) Head to Animator's Palate for the Disney Artists Academy, where the beloved artist will teach you to draw some of her favorite Disney characters during an interactive, hands-on workshop. Host John Pelkey will serve as master of ceremonies while co-host Mark Ferrera joins you in drawing under Stacia's friendly direction.

Celebrity Chef Art Smith and noted food-and-wine personality Marcy Carriker Smothers share stories and put unique twists on Disney dishes.

Disney author and historian Tim O'Day hosts celebrity Chef Art Smith and food-and-wine personality Marcy Carriker Smothers for the best-smelling show in our lineup!

Chef Art Smith, a sixth-generation Floridian whose numerous restaurants include Chef Art Smith's Homecomin' at Disney Springs, was part of the first class of Walt Disney World College Program students and has since earned two James Beard Foundation Awards, worked as a chef for two Florida governors and served for a decade as Oprah Winfrey's personal chef. Chef Art has appeared on such TV hits as ABC's "The Chew," Food Network's "Chopped" and Bravo's "Top Chef Masters."

Marcy Carriker Smothers, a food writer and vineyard farmer in California's Sonoma Valley, has hosted several food-focused radio programs (including the nationally syndicated "Food Guy and Marcy" with Food Network star Guy Fieri) and is the author of the new Disney Editions book Eat Like Walt: The Wonderful World of Disney Food. Inspired by the author's love of food and Disney, Eat Like Walt leads readers on a culinary tour of Disneyland Park and The Walt Disney Studios during Walt's life while also sharing recipes from Walt's kitchen, Disneyland restaurants and the studio commissary.

The stories Marcy shares from Eat Like Walt will help inspire the dishes Chef Art prepares on stage, while a few lucky volunteers from the audience will put those dishes to a taste test!

Dynamic Disney voice actors gather in the atrium to share their stories and demonstrate their talents live on stage.

Things are going to get loud – and probably a little weird – in the atrium as a Disney Legend and Member Cruise favorite returns to the stage with two voice-acting friends making their Member Cruise debuts.

A Member Cruise mainstay since 2009 and the voice of Goofy since 1987, the Emmy Award-nominated and Annie Award-winning Bill Farmer has lent his versatile vocal talents to everyone from Pluto to Horace Horsecollar to Doc (voicing the latter in the animated series "The 7D") and to a wide range of supporting characters in such beloved animated features as Who Framed Roger Rabbit, Beauty and the Beast, Toy Story, The Hunchback of Notre Dame, Cars, Monsters University and many others.

Joining Bill and making his Member Cruise debut is Bret Iwan, who succeeded the late Disney Legend Wayne Allwine as the voice of none other than Mickey Mouse. Iwan first filled those big yellow shoes about a decade ago, voicing the iconic character for Walt Disney World and Disney on Ice shows before continuing with everything from video games to hit TV series, including "Mickey and the Roadster Racers."

Also joining us for the first time is Brock Powell, a rising star mentored by Disney Legend Bill Farmer. Powell's voice is heard in a variety of animated series (including season 2 of the Disney XD hit "Milo Murphy's Law," premiering this August), toys (including some of the hottest Star Wars toys on the market), television commercials (including spots in which Powell voices the iconic Kool-Aid Man) and theme park attractions (including Pandora – The World of Avatar at Disney's Animal Kingdom Theme Park, where Powell shares his voice with some of the resident N'avi).

Be there as hosts Mark Ferrera and John Pelkey struggle to control this three-ring circus of stars. You may even become part of the show!

Disney Music Group's DCappella performs modern arrangements of Disney songs using only the power of the human voice.

Inspired by a treasure trove of Disney music and fueled by the power of the human voice, Disney Music Group's DCappella puts a unique spin on beloved Disney songs.

The seven-singer group reflects the renowned vision of music director and arranger Deke Sharon, described by Entertainment Weekly as "the father of contemporary a cappella." Sharon served as music director and arranger for the Pitch Perfect film trilogy, arranged and produced multiple albums for the popular a cappella group Straight No Chaser and, for Disney Parks, founded and directed the a cappella groups American Vybe (Epcot) and Groove 66 (Disneyland Park).

DCappella made its national debut in April with a special performance during "Disney Night" on "American Idol" before opening in May for "Disney's Beauty and the Beast Live in Concert at the Hollywood Bowl." ### Roy Patrick Disney joins Disney author and historian Tim O'Day and Walt Disney Archives Director Becky Cline to share what it was like to "grow up Disney."

Whether born in the age of Aurora or Aladdin, Baloo or Baymax, Captain EO or Captain Jack, everyone on this ship can lay some claim to "growing up Disney." And whether we grew to work for the company or entrust it with our vacation traditions, we consider ourselves part of the Disney family. It's all figurative, of course, unless you happen to be Roy Patrick Disney.

The grandson of company co-founder Roy O. Disney, and son of Disney Legend and former Vice Chairman Roy E. Disney is here to share what it was like to grow up in the real Disney family. Join Disney author and historian Tim O'Day as he chats with Roy about his childhood at home, on vacation and around the family business.

Roy will share rarely seen photos from his personal family albums, Walt Disney Archives Director Becky Cline will add images and insights from the company vault, and Tim will pose the kind of questions you may have always wanted to ask a Disney but never before found yourself sitting with one in an enclosed space at sea.

There's really no telling what Tim will ask, but as he'll collect a few questions from the audience before the show, you too may become part of that conversation.

Disney ON BROADWAY
STARS SET SAIL
HEROINES AND HEROES
assembled by Disney Vacation Club

Disney on Broadway stars join a live band on stage for a primetime concert celebrating heroes both real and imagined, old and new.

Star-studded concerts from our friends at Disney on Broadway have long punctuated Member Cruise voyages with musical exclamation marks, and this year's sailing renews that proud tradition in heroic fashion.

As the sun sets on our "Island of Heroes," the spotlight turns to the Walt Disney Theatre for a song-filled salute to theatrical and real-life heroes, from those who've captivated audiences on the stage and screen to those who've inspired the stars during their own epic journeys to the "Great White Way."

Assembling a team of Member Cruise favorites like musically gifted Avengers, our "crossover concert" event stars Ashley Brown (Broadway's original Mary Poppins), Kissy Simmons (known to many Disney fans for her Broadway portrayal of Nala in The Lion King), Josh Strickland (Broadway's original Tarzan) and Alton Fitzgerald White (Broadway's record-breaking Mufasa in The Lion King), all backed by a live band under the musical direction of Member Cruise veteran Jim Abbott.

Entertainers assemble! Assembling entertainers from across the globe, Disney Vacation Club and Disney Cruise Line are proud to present a diverse array of additional performers to entertain you in a variety of venues throughout the ship in the days ahead. Our voyage's music scene includes Scotland-based trio The Vitos, Colombia's Summer Breeze Duo, Ukraine violinist Ievgeniia Khalikova and, from the United States, pianist Joe Creamer. Plus, spend a magical evening with magician and screen star Steve Valentine, whose diverse resume includes starring roles in everything from TV's "Crossing Jordan" to Disney Channel's Teen Beach Movie, standout performances on such TV hits as "Mike & Molly" and "Psych," and countless commercials, video games and animation voices.
