PORT OVERVIEW

Aruba is the "A" in the ABC islands of Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao. The islands off the Venezuelan coast and their Arawak inhabitants were "discovered" by the Spanish in 1499. The Dutch claimed Aruba in 1636, but no European settlers arrived until 1754. In the 1800s, gold was discovered on Aruba near Jamanota Mountain. For almost 100 years, gold became a major export along with the pod of the divi-divi tree used for tanning leather and aloe. Today, the island has close to 7,000 hotel rooms, and tourism is the leading industry. More than 500,000 people now visit Aruba each year, making it one of the most popular destinations in the Caribbean. The islanders are very friendly, and almost everyone speaks English, Spanish, and Dutch, as well as Papiamentu. The population of Aruba is of mixed descent and can trace its ancestry back to 40 different ethnic backgrounds from around the world. Aruba has a dry climate with only 17 inches of rainfall per year. It is considered one of the most desirable ports in the Caribbean, especially because it remains outside of the hurricane zone. With beaches that stretch for seven miles along the serene turquoise coast embellished with imposing palm trees, Aruba is a place for modern hotels, restaurants and tax free shopping. Aruba's breathtaking views and extraordinary sunsets will leave you wanting more.

Safety Ashore Information

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. – Note: Some ports may require Guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
