

PORT CANAVERAL, FL

August 3, 1998

Please remember that all guests must vacate their stateroom prior to 8:00am so that the ship can be cleared in a timely manner. All guests must disembark the ship by 9:00am. We thank you for your cooperation.

The end to an incredible vacation ...

As you near the completion of your voyage, there are a few things you need to know before you return home.

Luggage

Please attach the luggage tags accompanying this Personal Navigator to your suitcases and place them outside your stateroom this evening prior to 10:00pm.

Your belongings will be securely stored and conveniently located in colored zones, according to stateroom number for easy recognition in the port terminal. Once you locate your luggage, you will go through Customs, where porters will await you for assistance with your luggage.

Day Bag

Please don't forget to pack a day bag for tomorrow, with such things as valuables and medication, as well as a change of clothing for the day of travel ahead.

Breakfast

Your breakfast will be served in the same dining room as your dinner the previous evening (see your Personal Navigator for exact time & location). Please bring your day bag with you, as you are requested to debark the ship immediately following breakfast. Please see your dining room server if you have any questions regarding your breakfast time.

Transportation

Upon our arrival into port, continuous transportation will be available to the location from which you were picked up and to Orlando International Airport.

Immigration

US Immigration requires all Non-US guests and those guests who joined us in Castaway Cay to present themselves personally for inspection at the first US port of entry into the United States, which will be Port Canaveral.

If applicable, please meet at Rockin' Bar D at 6:00 am, August 3rd. Thank you for your assistance in making this a smooth process.

*** Also, US Customs requires that the main lobby, deck 3, and surrounding atrium be kept clear of guests as we dock in Port Canaveral.

U.S. Department of Agriculture Debarcation Requirements

You cannot remove the following items from the ship:
Fruits or vegetables, products containing meat, coconuts, seed pods
You can remove cereal, dried fruit, pastry and bread products, juices and drinks.

Customs Allowance

You will need only one Customs Declaration Form per family with the same last name. If a member of your family has a different last name, they must fill out their own individual form. Should you need additional forms, please contact Guest Services.

If you have exceeded your customs allowance listed below, please proceed to Offbeat, deck 3 forward, and present your completed Customs Declaration form to the Customs official between 6:00am and 7:30am. Payment for duty can be made with cash or personal checks only. You must declare all articles acquired abroad and in your possession at the time of your return, including articles purchased in the Bahamas, on the ship, gifts presented to you onboard, duty free items on and off the ship, repairs/alterations made on articles taken abroad (even if repairs were free) and any article included for use or sale in business.

$400 in retail per person (if the total value of all dutiable articles exceeds $400, ALL items are subject to duty and/or taxes)

1 liter of alcoholic beverage per person of 21 years and older

1 liter of alcohol made and paid for in the Bahamas per person of 21 years and older

200 cigarettes per person & 10 cigars (no Cuban cigars)

Please have your Customs Declaration Form completed and available as you disembark the ship. After you have collected your bags in the terminal, these forms will be collected by Customs agents.

For your convenience...

Customs Declarations will be available in different languages such as English, German, Japanese, French, Spanish, Portuguese and Italian at the Guest Services Desk.

If you have any questions regarding the luggage, customs or immigration procedures, please do not hesitate to contact the Guest Services Desk.

If you placed a credit card on your account, there is no need to visit Guest Services, as your account will automatically be charged. If you have a "cash account", please visit Guest Services between 6:00am-7:00am the morning of August 3rd.

To expedite your check out, place a credit card on your account August 2nd if you have not already done so.
