Travel Safety Tips

As in any tourist destination, you will want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings, especially in crowded areas.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Leave your valuables in your stateroom safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs.
- Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight. People who carry handbags or backpacks are particularly vulnerable to purse snatchers on scooters.
- When going ashore, each adult and child is required to carry a passport or other government-issued photo ID. – Note: Some ports may require Guests to carry passports ashore.
- In general, use the same level of precaution you would use in any tourist destination.

Please remember that while in a foreign country, you are subject to its laws.

CADIZ OVERVIEW

Cadiz is located in southwestern Spain and is the oldest continuously inhabited city in Europe, steeped in rich antiquity. The old central quarter offers typical small streets, quaint gardens, and plazas.

Cadiz is one of 8 provinces that comprise the autonomous community of Andalusia; it serves as a continual link between Spain and the rest of Europe. Cadiz has also served as a gateway to the New World since the discovery of America, making it not only a vibrant high-traffic port, but a hotspot for cultural exchange and activity.

Cadiz's illustrious past reaches back several millennia. It was founded by the Phoenicians in approximately 1104 BC, but the arrival of the Greeks saw the wide propagation of the myth that the city was founded by Hercules himself. In subsequent centuries, Cadiz would change hands from the Romans to the Visigoths and the Moors — influencing the architecture of the buildings erected in the city through the ages.

Today, you'll find Cadiz and its culture alive, vibrant and well. Discover the amazing village of Arcos de La Frontera, one of the most striking destinations in all of Spain, perched high on a cliff overlooking the River Guadalete. You can even tour a quaint city called Jerez de La Frontera, where the time-honored tradition of producing delicious sherry wine is something you must taste to believe.

exciting and new for most travelers. Any visitor of modern-day Cadiz will experience abundant recreational and shopping experiences and immersion in its captivating culture.
