PORT OVERVIEW

Halifax, the capital of Nova Scotia, is a lively and colorful combination of urban and rural living at its best. Governor Edward Cornwallis and 2,500 settlers created Canada's first permanent British town in 1749 on the scenic shores of the world's second largest natural harbor. The historic downtown waterfront areas of Halifax and Dartmouth are perfect for walking tours. Halifax has been a significant port city ever since it's founding. There are often historic ships parked in the port. Halifax blends the past with the present to produce a skyline dotted with elegant 18th-and 19th-century architecture. Halifax has a long and memorable history as a bastion of British strength in the New World. Built to counteract the growing strength of the French in North America, Halifax was recognized the world over for its strategic importance and excellent ice-free harbor. Consequently, the British were careful to protect it with the most advanced defenses available. Since the age of steam, well over a million immigrants from around the globe have arrived through the port of Halifax at Pier 21, the "Gateway to Canada." Some ventured to other parts of North America, but many remained, enhancing Nova Scotia with their skills, experience and cultural distinction. Today, the province's cultural mosaic is made up of more than 100 different ethnic groups. In Halifax you will find charming fishing villages, farming communities and Atlantic Canada's largest city. In the heart of the downtown, you'll find art galleries, museums, historic sites and churches, shopping, sidewalk cafés and friendly nightclubs.

Halifax

Did You Know?

People from Halifax are known as Haligonians, and there are six universities and colleges in Halifax.

Halifax boasts one of the finest original formal Victorian Public Garden in North America.

Halifax is closer to Dublin, Ireland than it is to Victoria, British Columbia.

Halifax has the oldest salt water ferry service in North America (1752). In the early days of the ferries, people were called to the terminal with three blows of a conch shell and the crew's shouts of the word "Over."

Due to holidays, recommended store closings and/or reduced hours of operation are subject to change without notice. Neither PPI Group nor the Cruise Line has any control over a retailer's store hours.

Safety Ashore Information

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. – Note: Some ports may require Guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
