PORT OVERVIEW

The verdant, undulating island of Antigua is the largest of the Leeward Islands, and is blessed with some of the most beautiful beaches in the Caribbean. Antigua has a long association with Britain, having only gained independence in 1981. One of the island's most picturesque spots is English Harbor, where a fortress was erected, at Shirley Heights, to protect Antigua's commerce. Within the harbor is Nelson's Dockyard, with a monument dedicated to the English Admiral Horatio Nelson, who was based on the island for three years in the 18th Century. The Dockyard fell into disrepair on being abandoned by the Navy at the end of the 19th Century but was reopened in 1961 after 20 years of restoration work. The waters around the Dockyard and the Harbor are now filled with splendid yachts making their way to and from Antigua. The capital of St. John's was, during the 18th Century, the principal British military stronghold in the area. Today it is a thriving Caribbean town, where nearly half of all Antiguanians live.

Safety Ashore Information

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Obey local traffic and pedestrian laws and signage. Please use crosswalks and mind the traffic signals or crossing guards if present. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. - Note: Some ports may require Guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
- All Guests (including children) who wish to disembark the ship are required to present their Key To The World card at the gangway. A photo ID is also required for those Guests who are 18 years of age or older. Guest under the age of 18 are required to have a parent, guardian or other responsible adult sign an authorization form at the Guest Services desk if they wish to go ashore unaccompanied or with any adult from another stateroom.
