PORT OVERVIEW

Well-positioned between Ocho Rios and Montego Bay, the port sits on a triangular peninsula that accommodates large cruise ships within a very short walk of historic Georgian sights. During its heyday, Falmouth was the send-off point for sugar, molasses, rum and coffee bound for England however by the 1800's the town reverted to a sleepy seaside village, far off most tourists' maps.

Home to one of the Caribbean's largest colonial historic districts, Jamaica's felt that Falmouth had been ignored for too long, so with the opening the new port in 2011, a local renaissance of sorts has resulted in the restoration of many of the old Georgian homes. As in Great Britain, driving is on the left, so when crossing the street, be sure to look both ways. Enjoy your day exploring culturally rich Falmouth.

Safety Ashore Information

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Obey local traffic and pedestrian laws and signage. Please use crosswalks and mind the traffic signals or crossing guards if present. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. - Note: Some ports may require Guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
- All Guests (including children) who wish to disembark the ship are required to present their Key To The World card at the gangway. A photo ID is also required for those Guests who are 18 years of age or older.
