An Overview of Costa Maya

Costa Maya is the first Western Caribbean port designed exclusively for the cruise ship industry and is strategically located just hours from Cancun on Mexico's southern Yucatan Peninsula. It is Comprised of 2 small villages, Mahahual and Xcalak. While Xcalak is approximately 37 miles south of the Costa Maya cruise port, the fishing village of Mahahual is only about 2 miles away. Mahahual has soft sand beaches, grass thatched palapas and a coral reef a short distance off-shore called Banco Chinchorro, as well as several bars, restaurants and shops.

Set against the deep turquoise sea, Costa Maya is comprised of three grand pavilions, artisan and costa maya shopping areas, a beach club, saltwater pools, fine restaurants and bars, and all the resources necessary to explore the surrounding jungle and coral reefs. It is the region's most complete and diverse port of call, providing cultural, natural and archeological excursions.

Port Adventures: Check your ticket for the correct meeting time and location for your tour. Your Port Adventures Team will direct you to transportation. Taxi service available outside the cruise terminal.

RESTRICTIONS ON U.S. CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS IN MEXICO

In September of 2010, the Mexican government enacted a law limiting the amount of U.S. dollars a Mexican business or individual may deposit into their bank account. Because of this limitation, some of the recommended stores in port may restrict the amount of U.S. dollars they will accept in settlement of your purchases. Please remember to take your credit card into port so that you may be able to take advantage of all the bargains these stores have to offer.
